

Coreq Support for Section 1.8

Topic 1: Understanding Absolute Value

The absolute value of a number is its distance from 0 on the number line. For example, $|-5| = 5$ because the number -5 is 5 units away from 0 on a number line.