

Elena Ournycheva, Kent State University

Two spaces conditions for integrability of the Fourier transform.

Tests for the integrability of the Fourier transform of a function are given in terms of belonging of the function simultaneously to two spaces of smooth functions. These are, in a sense, generalizations of Zygmund's test for the absolute convergence of Fourier series. (Joint work with Elijah Lifyand).